

Common Wren.

Maude Scrivener.

My Dear Pollie, Thank you very much for P.C.

I was pleased to hear from you & hope you are better dear for the change. You needed me so much. Mind you come back with some rosy cheeks, and don't forget the paint. You must remember all the good persons you hear on Sun. and tell me all about them when you come home. How dare you omit the address where you are staying at Sheffield you naughty girl I think I can guess! However I should I find you if I came over with an evening excursion. Ah well dear I will forgive you this time. But don't let it happen again in only the weather is so unsettled but hope it will be better next week. I hope you will be able to hear from J.C.C. somewhere in your travels. That would cheer you up most. Goodbye dear Pollie I shall have to write you a letter cannot get all I want to tell you on a P.C. With love, same
